WEATHER REPORT.

U. S. DEP'T OF AGRICULTURE, WEATHER BUREAU, WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 11.

Temperature: 8 A.M., 68 deg.; 8 P.M. 75 deg.; maximum, 78 deg.; minimum, 65 deg.; mean, 75 deg.

Rainfall for the day, .00; rainfall since 1st of the month up to date. .76 inch.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

A storm area of considerable energy is central over Lake Superior, with a trough of low pressure extending southwest to Northern Texas. Another barometric depression is central off the Southern Florida coast. The pressure is highest in the North Atlantic Coast States, and over the extreme Northwest.

Light and scattered showers have occurred generally, except to the eastward of the Ohio valley, where fair weather has prevailed. The weather is mostly clear to-night in all sections, excepting a few scattered points. The temperature has risen sharply throughout the Lake regions and North Atlantic States; elsewhere the changes have been slight.

The following high winds are reported on the South Atlantic coast during the past 12 hours: Charleston, S. C., 38 N. E.; Savannah, Ga., 32 N. E.; Wilmington, N. C., 27 N. E

Stage of water in the river at Fayetteville at 8 A. M., 3.4 feet.

FORECAST FOR TO-DAY.

For North Carolina—Showers; increasing east to northeast winds.

Canal boats will shortly be run by electricity, which will relegate the towpath mule, and also the Presidents with canal mule-driving antecedents.

England gets the heads of her armies and a good deal of the body from Ireland. Wellington, Wolseley, Kitchener and Lord Roberts were all born in Ireland.

Perhaps Gov. Black will appreciate the implied compliment to his administration when candidate Roosevelt asks the voters to ignore State issues and rally around the flag.

Two escaped prisoners from a Pennsylvania jail were courteous enough to leave a note bidding the sheriff good by and informing him that they were making a bee line for the Klondike.

A great many people were surprised at the fine specimens of Georgia corn on exhibition at the Omaha Exposition. They thought Georgia didn't raise anything but cotton and Democrats.

Larry Godkin, of the New York Post, is revengeful. Candidate Roosevelt, before he became candidate for Governor, once said Godkin couldn't tell the truth, and now Larry is puffing Roosevelt.

Mary Miller, of Newark, Ohio, over 60 years of age, has sued John Jones, also over sixty, for $10,000 for breach of promise. A young man who would trifle with and jilt an innocent 60 year old girl like that ought to be made shell out.

Mrs. Catharine Watts, of Sellersville, Pa., gave a birthday party to celebrate her 108th anniversary. She was in the best of spirits and danced with four generations. The old lady gets around lively with her housework, reads without glasses, and walks several miles to church on Sundays. Her baby is 70 years old.

Colored magistrate material seems to be somewhat scarce in the South Rock Creek section, but maybe by hustling around they may find some sable brother who can read and has not been in the penitentiary whom they can put up for magistrate, and if they do white Republicans and Populist fusionists will be expected to vote for him.

The Rocky Mount Motor tells about a totally depraved Populist up there who says he would vote the fusion ticket if every candidate on it was "as black as the hinges of h—ll." Maybe he doesn't know how black the hinges of h—ll are. But he will find out some of these days if he doesn't reform and repent.

The Lumberton Robesonian says that the negroes who heard Rocky Mount Butler's speech in that town gave it the loudest and heartiest applause. This shows that the negroes understand and appreciate the work that Butler is trying to do for them.

Last Friday the Goldsboro Argus entered upon its fifteenth year. The Argus has been identified with the upbuilding of Goldsboro and has well earned the liberal support which it has received.

Cardinal Parrochi started in life as a newspaper man. Newspapers are good training schools for young men who have piety enough in their composition to build upon.

Perhaps if Chaplain McIntyre didn't mix so much brandy with his quinine or so much quinine with his brandy his tongue might not be so easily hypnotized.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

— Mr. S. H. Strange, of Fayetteville, is registered at The Orton.

— Mr. J. W. Ingold, of Fayetteville, was here on business yesterday.

— Mr. W. E. Thigpen, of Chadbourn, was registered at The Orton yesterday.

— Mr. J. A. Cavenaugh, of Hallsboro, N. C., spent yesterday in the city and was one of the welcome callers at the STAR office.

— Dr. J. S. Hall left yesterday for Los Angeles, California, to resume his medical studies after a very pleasant vacation spent with his parents in this city.

— Mr. J. T. Runge, Associated Press operator at the W. U. office here, has three months' vacation. He is succeeded by Mr. VanValkenburg, who arrived yesterday from Columbia, S. C.

Justice Bornemann's Court.

Justice G. W. Bornemann had a full day's work yesterday with offenders of the law. Three cases of disorderly conduct were submitted and the Justice promptly taxed the guilty parties with the costs. Rachel Mackey, a colored woman, swore out papers for another party for disorderly conduct and subsequently submitted to the same charge herself. She paid the costs. Robert Miller, a "coon" of tender age, for assault and battery, was let off with the costs and a chastisement by his mother. "Son" Hunter and James Parker had a quarrel about some money, which led to a fight, in which Parker was right badly wounded in the back by the negro's usual weapon —a brick. He was bound over to the Criminal Court in the sum of $50, which he failed to give and was jailed.

Martin Has Surrendered.

Saturday's Fayetteville Observer says that J. H. Martin has surrendered himself to the authorities there. It will be remembered that the Wilmington police were instructed by telegraph early last week to arrest Martin here, but it was found that he had left the city on the steamer Hurt, returning to Fayetteville. He is charged with stealing a raft of lumber. Turlington, his accomplice, says the Observer, is on the way to Fayetteville on the Hurt from this city.

Negro Thief Caught.

The negro, Son Charles, who some time ago robbed Mr. H. Hauser of a watch, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Pat Flynn. Charles is an all-round bad negro, having already served a term in the penitentiary for larceny. It is thought he is also the negro who robbed Mr. B. C. Moore one night last week. He will have a hearing before Justice Bunting to-day.

Fort Caswell Soldiers.

Sergeant W. L. Woods and Private L. J. Cornwell, of Fort Caswell, are spending a short furlough in the city. They say the boys are making preparations for the Porto Rican expedition in earnest, and that they are anxious to go. They hope to get away by November 1st.

CIRCUIT CRIMINAL COURT.

Convened Yesterday—Grand Jury Empanelled and Work of Court Gotten Well Under Way.

The October term of the Circuit Criminal Court for Wilmington was convened yesterday at 10 A. M. by Judge Blythe, of Hendersonville. Mr. R. W. French, as clerk, and M. C. Richardson, Esq., as solicitor, were at their desks, and Deputy W. W. King was, as usual, acting high sheriff. By 11 o'clock the grand jury was empanelled and the Judge's charge administered. The following compose the jury:

Jno. J. Fowler (foreman), J. D. Hedrick, Lewis Weill, Thos. Revera, Jr., Jno. Martin, J. D. Sidberry, Warren F. Scott, Geo. H. Hutaff, Samuel Whitted, E. Piner, Eli Southerland, Thos. H. Thornton, E. D. McCabe, Lewis McMillan, Lewis Hollingsworth, J. W. Atkinson, A. B. Jones and A. H. Holmes.

No cases of importance were called for trial and all except two or three were disposed of without petit jury. The cases and the disposition made of them are as follows:

Geo. Armstrong, colored, carrying concealed weapons, submitted; judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

Haywood Howard, colored, assault and battery with deadly weapon, guilty; six months in the county work house.

Geo. Lewis, colored, failure to supply support for his family, guilty; judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

Estella Smith and Sue Carroll, both colored, nuisance, guilty; thirty days in the county jail.

James Clark, colored, assault and battery with deadly weapon, guilty; judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

A. B. Price, violation of section 213 of the code, guilty; fined $15 and costs.

J. Loder, colored, assault and battery with deadly weapon, guilty; judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

Geo. Polets, selling liquor on Sunday, guilty; judgment suspended on the payment of costs; two cases for selling liquor to minors nol prossed.

Geo. T. Cox, misdemeanor, guilty; judgment suspended on the payment of costs; resisting an officer, guilty; judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

May Nelson, assault and battery with deadly weapon, guilty; judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

Giles Anderson, colored, injury to personal property, guilty; judgment suspended on condition that he make reparation for the damage committed.

Alex. Sauls, colored, resisting an officer, guilty; judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

Thomas Robinson, colored, perjury; not guilty; embezzlement, guilty; sentenced to two years in the penitentiary

At 6 o'clock the court took a recess until 9 A. M. to-day.

TO ORGANIZE TO-DAY.

Eastern Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association Under New Charter.

In the parlors of The Orton at 10 o'clock this morning the stockholders of the Eastern Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association will meet for organization under the charter recently issued to them by the Secretary of State through Col. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court. It will be remembered that the charter provides for a permanent office of the Association in Wilmington and it is the purpose of the stockholders to employ a secretary the year round and establish that office as soon as possible. A full corps of officers will be elected to-day.

Another important duty to engage their attention will be the adoption of constitution and by-laws. A number of the stockholders arrived here yesterday and last night and others are expected on the early trains this morning.

LARGEST CARGO COTTON.

Shipped by Alexander Sprunt & Son on British Steamship Tenby Yesterday.

The largest cargo of cotton ever shipped from this port went on the British steamship Tenby yesterday. It consisted of 14,642 bales, 7,428,575 pounds, valued at $408,572, and was shipped to Liverpool by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son, the well known cotton exporters.

Col. J. L. Cantwell, of the Produce Exchange, calls the STAR'S attention to the fact that the next largest cargo was shipped also to Liverpool by Messrs. Sprunt & Son, October 6th, 1897, on the British steamship Sahara. This cargo consisted of 13,700 bales, which is nearly a thousand bales less than the number shipped on the Tenby yesterday. It will also be interesting to note that while the Tenby has a net tonnage of 2,558, the Sahara, which carried the smaller cargo, has a tonnage of 2,665, a difference in favor of the Tenby of 107, to say nothing of the difference in the cargoes.

Two Fire Alarms Yesterday.

With their usual promptness the firemen responded to two trifling fire alarms Sunday. About 8 o'clock fire was discovered in Messrs. Burr & Bailey's alley on Front street, and the other came from box 31, and was found to be in a small house on North Sixth street. The damage was scarcely anything in either case.

TWO ABLE DISCOURSES.

Rev. C. S. Blackwell, D.D., Greeted by Two Large Congregations—The Installation Service.

The First Baptist congregation was treated to two unusually able sermons Sunday by their new pastor, Rev. Calvin S. Blackwell, late corresponding secretary of the B. Y. P. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention. The pastorate was really inaugurated with the 11 A. M. service, and the church was well filled with an eager and expectant audience. And the pulpit rostrum was adorned with luxuriant potted plants.

Dr. Blackwell made no reference whatever to his plans for pastoral work, entering at once into the service. The sermons at the morning and evening services were closely allied—the one in the morning being devoted to Christ's dealings with the spiritual life of man and the one at night presenting the Bible as a parallel for every human life.

Both were wonderfully practical and were especially notable for depth of thought and pleasing flights of oratory.

In fact, Dr. Blackwell is sustaining fully his splendid reputation as an able and eloquent minister.

The arrangements for the installation services Friday night are progressing quite satisfactorily. Dr. Blackwell told a STAR reporter yesterday that he expected his family from Norfolk Friday morning.

SEWERAGE REGULATIONS.

Board of Health Yesterday Passed Resolutions Subject to the Approval of the City Aldermen.

At a meeting of the City Board of Health held yesterday afternoon important action was taken in the matter of sewerage regulations. City Surveyor J. H. McRee was called before the Board and questioned about matters pertaining to the sewerage, and as a result of the investigation Dr. Thomas offered the following resolutions, which were adopted and ordered sent to the Board of Aldermen for their approval, to wit:

Resolved, That after this date all permits to lay sewers and make sewerage connections must be returned to the Superintendent of Health with the endorsement of the city surveyor as an evidence of the fact that the work has been done in a manner satisfactory to him both as to material used and the character of the work done. This order shall be construed to include the inspection of sewer pipe, which shall be vitrolized, salt glazed of the best variety, jointed with portland cement, properly mixed for use. Also as to levels in the run of the entire pipe, the proper connections with the mains and the houses to be connected, and such other matters in connection with the work as the city surveyor shall deem necessary for the best interests of citizens and to carry out the meaning of this order."

Members of the Board in attendance upon the meeting yesterday were Dr. Wright, Dr. Thomas and Dr. McMillan. The Board decided to dispense with weekly meetings and hereafter meet on the last day of each month.

THE REGISTRATION OUTRAGE.

Peamon, the Principal Actor, Given a Hearing Before Esquire McGowan.

Carter Peamon, whose misdeed at the registration place of the First division of the First ward is familiar to STAR readers, was given a hearing before Justice J. M. McGowan yesterday at 9 o'clock. Peamon was represented by the colored lawyer, W. E. Henderson, and the prosecutor, Mr. S. H. Terry, by attorneys L. V. Grady and George L. Peschau. The evidence of the plaintiff was substantially the same as published just after the occurrence, and he was corroborated in every important point by his witnesses, who were all men of integrity and standing. The gist of their testimony was that Peamon snatched the knife from Mr. Terry, who was standing against a post, in no menacing attitude with the knife closed in his hands. Peamon was asked by Mr. Terry to return the knife, but he refused. It was subsequently returned through Lawyer Henderson, who no doubt advised such a course.

The witnesses for the defendant contended that Peamon snatched the knife from Mr. Terry in self defence and that he drew the knife and opened it as if to make an assault on Peamon. The counsel for the plaintiff showed very evidently how it would have been impossible for Peamon to have wrenched the open knife from Mr. Terry, without cutting him.

The charge upon which the defendant was tried was larceny. Justice McGowan reserved his decision until to-day at 2 o'clock.

TO ELECT OFFICERS TO-NIGHT.

Enthusiastic Meeting of the Wilmington Division Naval Reserves Last Night,

The regular monthly meeting of the Wilmington Division Naval Reserves was held last night in their armory at at the old court house.

Mr. W. R. Middleton presided and Mr. Jno. W. Freeman served as secretary. There was a large attendance and much enthusiasm was manifested. The Reserves had purposed to elect officers and accomplish a sort of re-organization, inasmuch as their recent muster out of service had rather disorganized them; but the election was postponed until to-night, when the company will meet for regular drill. Several matters of much importance to the company and community were fully discussed.

LOCAL DOTS.

— The annual meeting of the members of the Merchant's Association to have been held last night has been postponed until next Monday night.

— Three cases of drunk and down were submitted to the city authorities yesterday and judgment was suspended in each upon payment of costs.

— The Wilmington Light Infantry held their regular monthly meeting last night. Nothing but routine business of no public interest was transacted.

— John D. Bellamy, the White Man's candidate for Congress, left yesterday for Union county, where he will make a thorough canvass, delivering two speeches a day.

— Mrs. Stephen Keys, mother of Messrs Tom, William and John Key's died rather suddenly at her home on Wrightsville Sound Saturday and was buried yesterday.

— The schooner John Russell arrived at Southport yesterday morning for harbor with stanchions broken and deck load shifted. She will repair and proceed as soon as the weather permits.

— The quarterly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Associated Charities to have been held yesterday at noon has been postponed until the second Monday in November at the same hour.

— Greensboro Record: "The Wilmington STAR was thirty one years old yesterday. The STAR is the oldest daily newspaper in the State, and is among the best. May it live many more years."

— The ticket for Magistrates that will be nominated by the Republicans for this city will be "a sight". If fairly proportioned as to color it will consist of 23 negroes and one off-color white man.

— The latest date for the game of foot ball between the O. U. D.'s and the Chesnut street elevens is Wednesday afternoon. The boys say the game will certainly be played on that date at Hilton park.

— The White Government Union of the Third Ward, First and Second divisions, held a very inportant meeting in the S. A. L. Building last night. Matters of a most momentous nature to white men were discussed.

— Little Irene, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. E. T. Mason, died yesterday at the residence on Third street between Castle and Queen. The remains will be carried to Masonboro Sound to-day for interment.

— The millinery opening of Mrs. A. E. Canaday & Co., takes place Thursday and Friday, Oct. 13th and 14th. They announce that they will have the newest styles, and the ladies of Wilmington are invited to call and see their display.

— News reached the city yesterday of the death of Mr. Washington Taylor, a well known citizen of Southport. The funeral was conducted yesterday from his residence, at Southport and the interment was made in the cemetery at that place.

— The drug store at No 901 North Fourth street which was entered by burglars last Friday night is owned by Mr. Bernice C. Moore and not by Mr. J. Hicks Bunting as was stated in the report of the affair Mr. Moore says, too, that he has no Winchester rifle.

— The political speech by Hon. W. D, Turner in this city October 13th will be delivered in the Opera House at 8 o'clock. Mr. Turner is an able speaker and white men of Wilmington are looking forward with much pleasure to his coming. He will be introduced by Frank McNeill Esq.

— Both the St John's Episcopal and the First Presbyterian Sunday Schools held their first sessions since June on Sunday afternoon. There was a goodly number of people and teachers in attendance upon each, and they have started out for the Fall and Winter with splendid prospects.

— In justice to J. W. Lee, the colored Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of this county, we give him the benefit of his sworn statement printed elsewhere in the STAR to-day. Who wrote the letter inquiring about rifles, and signed "Wm Lee," is the question now to be determined.

— Mr. John A. Sutton, who has been voting the Republican ticket about twenty years, called at the STAR office yesterday and stated that he had enough of Rep.-Pop. fusion, and would vote the Democratic ticket hereafter, He is a brother of W. J. Sutton, who is the Rep.-Pop. candidate for the Legislature in Bladen county.

— A young man who reaches the age of twenty-one after the close of registration, and on or before the 8th of November, can register and vote on the day of election. Or, if any elector has been a resident of the State twelve months and of his county ninety days immediately preceding the day of election, he can register and vote on that day.

Important Public Speakings.

The following public speakings of interest to STAR readers are announced for this month:

Hon. W. D. Turner, Clarkton, October 11; Bladenboro, October 15; Lumberton, in Robeson county, October 17.

Francis D. Winston speaks at Seven Springs, Wayne county, Saturday, October 15.

R. B. Glenn speaks at High Point October 7 and Winston October 11.

Hon. Lee S. Overman will speak at Lexington October 15, at a grand mass meeting and convention.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Cleveland-Wilson Promise the Greatest Performance Wilmington Has Ever Had.

Geo. Wilson, popularly dubbed the Southern king of minstrelsy, will be at the Opera House to-morrow night, with his own merry minstrels consolidated with the famous W. S. Cleveland aggregation. This mammoth combination of forces promises to present one of the greatest and most refined minstrel performances ever seen in this city. Wherever the troupe has appeared their performances have been highly complimented. And there is every reason to believe that their promise will be abundantly fulfilled.

The Cleveland-Wilson company represent the cream of minstrelsy. The performances are crowded with fun and great specialties. The stars of the minstrel firmament head the bill. The best known are Geo. Wilson, E. M Hall, John Queen and Charles G. Weber. They are supported by a big company of vocalists, musicians and dancers, who all work together as only W. S. Cleveland and George Wilson can enthuse men to work. Among the other people are Keno and Welsh, who are ironclad, grotesque acrobatic comedians. They put on a sketch called "American Gunners," which makes sixty laughs to the minute.

Seats can now be reserved at Gerken's.

A. G. Ricaud Esq., Will Open a Law Office on Wall Street.

A. G. Ricaud, Esq., left Wilmington Sunday on the 7.15 P. M. northbound A. C. L. train for New York, where as heretofore announced in the STAR, he goes to locate for the practice of law. His office will be No. 40 Wall street and the firm name will be Ricaud and Mayer. His partner will be Henry J. Mayer, Esq., who was a partner with the lamented Sol. C. Weill, a young Wilmington attorney who attained considerable distinction as a practitioner at the New York bar.

The people of Wilmington regret to lose Mr. Ricaud from their midst. He is a genial and high-toned gentleman, an able lawyer, and has every prospect of a brilliant career. He has filled with credit several positions of trust and honor, having been elected Mayor of Wilmington in 1891 and served one term. He was made receiver of the First National Bank, of this city, to succeed W. S. O'B. Robinson, Esq., who resigned to accept the Superior Court Judgeship.

A host of friends in this city and section will watch with much interest Mr. Ricaud's career in New York, and they, with the STAR, wish for him the success to which his great legal talent and rare personal charms abundantly entitle him.

WAS PAID FIFTEEN CENTS.

McAllister Protests That He Knows Nothing of Wm. Lee.

A STAR reporter was told yesterday by Col. W. L. DeRosset that the wife of W. H. McAllister, colored, cooks for him. McAllister, it will be remembered, is the negro in whose care the Odell Hardware Co., of Greensboro, was to send their answer to the inquiry of "Wm. Lee," colored, as to prices on two dozen Winchester rifles, the particulars of which were published in Sunday's STAR. The negro woman, says Col. DeRosset, claims that the only way her husband is connected with the affair is that the negro, Wm. Lee, came to their house and engaged her husband, McAllister, to write the letter, for which he paid him fifteen cents. McAllister is a paralytic and is a sort of letter-writer for the community in which he lives. He claims to know nothing of who or where Wm. Lee is.

DR. HOGE'S LECTURES.

The First of the Series Delivered Before a Large Audience.

A large audience gathered at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday night to hear the first of Dr. Hoge's lectures on "Places of Interest Connected With the Life of Our Lord." And everyone was delighted with the discourse. "Bethlehem" was the especial theme and, using the points of interest in and about this historic old town as a basis, he preached an eloquent and effective sermon. An appropriate sequel to the lecture was a beautiful rendition of the solo "Bethlehem," by Mrs. Jane Calder. The second of the series of lectures will be delivered next Sunday night and the theme will be "Nazareth."

TO THE PUBLIC.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 10, 1868.

EDITOR STAR—I take this method to say to the public that I have no knowledge of any letter written to Odell Hardware Company, of Greensboro, nor to any one else inquiring as to price of Winchester rifles or other firearms. I have nothing but good will for both white and colored among whom I live. I have no knowledge of McAllister or Wm. Lee.

THE RACE THIS AFTERNOON.

L. A. W. Relay Teams to Strive for Honors—Supper to be Served To-night.

The two L. A. W. Club relay teams will "pull off" the race this afternoon which they were to have run last week. The riders are in thorough trim and the boys are determined to afford a contest which will be well worth the trouble of going out to see. They will start from the corner of Market and Fifth streets and run to the five-mile post and back.

The officers of the course as announced for the race last week will be on duty this afternoon. Spectators will remember that the colors of Capt. LeGwin's team will be white and those of Capt. Forshee blue.

Arrangements have been made for a sumptuous supper to be served in the club apartments to-night about 8.30 o'clock. It will be at the expense of the losing team. The victors, the course officials and members of the city press will be the guests of honor.

DR. JOHN HALL'S SUCCESSOR.

Rev. Alexander Connell, of London, May Fill the Vacant Pulpit.

A telegram from New York, in the Baltimore Herald, October 9th, says:

Rev. Dr. Alexander Connell will probably be the successor of the late Rev. Dr. John Hall as pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Connell is a brilliant pulpit orator, 31 years old, a Scotchman by birth, now filling the pulpit of the Regent Square Presbyterian Church, London.

Dr. Connell is believed to be at present in Vancouver, B. C., en route to Japan, and he has been telegraphed to regarding his acceptance.

The committee on pulpit supply was, at a meeting of the session held last Thursday, authorized to present to a church meeting on October 17th the name of Dr. Connell, with a recommendation of the session that he be the choice of the meeting. It is expected that the choice will be unanimous.

TO THE PUBLIC:

In 1898, by some method, it is not necessary for me to particularize now, I was induced to accept a nomination upon the Populist ticket for one of the County Commissioners of this County and I was elected.

I desire now to say through your columns that I was not then nor am I now a Populist nor a Republican, but that I am now, as I have always been and always expect to be, a simon pure Democrat and that I shall vote the Democratic Ticket from bottom to top.

I expect not only to vote but to use all my influence to induce others to vote the White Man's ticket in the future.

The Musical Association.

There was a large attendance of the Wilmington Musical Association membership in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association last night when the first general meeting of the season was held. There was quite a satisfactory rehearsal of the oratorio "Joan of Arc." The Association decided to hold regular weekly meetings during the remainder of the season and the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. will be their rendezvous. The next meeting will be on Monday night of next week.

SOLVING THE RACE PROBLEM.

The New York Post has a correspondent who seems to be giving some attention to the race question in the South. He has a letter in a recent issue, in which he gives his views at some length and suggests what he thinks will prove the solution of the problem without friction. He recognizes the fact that there is friction, but thinks it creditable to both races that in view of the changed relations between them there has not been more, or that what is has not proven more serious. Calling attention to the fact that the negro population of the country has increased from 1,002,037 in the beginning of the century to 7,638,282 in 1890, he figures that in 1900 it will number 8,750,000 and in 1910, 10,000,000, and that they are here to stay, regardless of the absurd and visionary schemes of deporting them to Africa, Cuba, the Philippines, or even to our Western Territories.

Quoting from the census of 1890 he shows that the negroes outnumber the whites in the States of Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina, and that taking the six States of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia and South Carolina there are in the aggregate something over 100,000 more negroes than whites. But while recognizing the fact that there is friction, and always will be where the two races come into contact and the negro crosses the white man's path or the line that the white man has drawn, or rather that Omnipotence drew when He made one of one color and the other of another color, the danger he thinks is in congestion at certain centers, the avoidance of which will diminish while it will not entirely remove the friction. His solution of the way to avoid congestion and secure a distribution which will open up greater possibilities for the negroes in an easier and more practicable way than any of the emigration or colonization advocates have yet suggested, is thus set forth:

"As the negroes increase in numbers and gain also in knowledge, experience and self-control, some of them will begin to see that they can the better train and educate their children, and can lead themselves more satisfactory lives by withdrawing from daily contact with the whites. Just as there are quarters for the Chinese, the Syrians, and the Polish Jews, and for the negroes themselves in New York city, so there will be quarters for the negroes in the South. The very reasons that induce the congregation of certain peoples in New York city, will induce others to get together. But the people who inhabit certain quarters in New York never lose sight of trade possibilities; they never go where distance or circumstances interfere with earnings; this rule when applied to the South will prevent the formation of negro States. The negro is shrewd enough to know that it will not pay to go wholly beyond white enterprise and white employment. He proposes, and ever will propose, to stay in touch with the whites. Nearly all of the blacks will continue to live, as they have lived, side by side with the whites. The few will, however, draw away, and then we shall begin to see the cure for all unsupportable friction in the occupation by the negroes of counties here and there in the six Southeastern States. Negro counties are to be the safety valves of the future. Not very many will be needed—perhaps one will be enough in a Congressional district; at first not more than one or two in a State. The advanced colored man will seek one of these counties, led perhaps by a colored bishop or preacher. The ambitious will find there a wider and fuller field. The sensitive will go there, because the distinctions that are to them humiliations will be lacking. The educational leaders of the race will seek the opportunities that such counties will offer.

The selection and the filling up of such counties will proceed slowly and naturally without any sort of forcing or missionary work. No outside help will be needed. It would undoubtedly be hurtful. The colored people must first be ripe, so to speak, for such a movement. The buying up and occupation of a county is not a light task. It can be consummated in a day, or a year, or a decade of years. When there are a sufficient number of well to-do, or at least foreheaded negroes in the south, and when those negroes feel that the friction of the races is too heavy to bear comfortably and easily then they will begin to pick out new homes where they will be surrounded by their own people, and negro counties will become a possibility. To attempt to create one before the race is ready for it would lead to unnecessary losses. The movement cannot and should not be forced. It should be spontaneous and natural. It must be so in order to succeed.

In a negro county there will be some capable leaders. President Booker T. Washington of Tuskegee Institute is by no means the only capable negro in the South. Of course demagogues and politicians will also go to such a country, and many mistakes will be made, but through such mistakes the race must feel its way to self-government and independent action. In such a county a negro will necessarily be tried before his "peers," and in such a county the Mississippi intelligenee clause and all similar devices will be construed as favorably for the negro as they are elsewhere construed in favor of the whites. In a negro county restrictive electoral clauses will plainly be inoperative. A negro legislator will go up to the capital of the State, and if he be a man of sense and tact, he may accomplish a great deal for those whom he represents.

This is speculative writing, horoscoping the future, and prospectively solving a very perplexing problem. When he was writing these prognostics he was doubtless in some degree expressing the views of negroes with whom he had talked, but he was probably not aware of the fact that he was outlining on a somewhat diminutive scale the schemes of some of the negroes in North Carolina who hope to see Eastern North Carolina negroized and in absolute control and ownership of the negroes, to which end they are now working. They are not so moderate in their aims as to be content with "one county in a congressional district," for they are reaching out for a larger territory than that and have their eyes on Eastern North Carolina, which Bishop Petty says "is the place for the negro."

The writer of the letter from which we quote does not suggest the way by which the negroes are to get possession of the counties which they are to make exclusively negro counties, but we presume he means that they will purchase the land from the owners, which would take a good deal of time and a good deal of money if at all practicable. Some of the sable schemers who have been planning to get permission in this section have a more heroic plan than that, as outlined by a speaker at a negro meeting in an Eastern [illegible] long ago. His plan is to first secure political control, which will chafe the white man and make him dissatisfied, then to offer to buy him out not with cash but by agreeing to pay a certain price, with a mortgage as security, for the payment of the money and if that doesn't work then make it so hot for the white man that he will be glad to sell on any terms and get out. This leaves the negro county idea and the plan of carrying it out completely in the shade, and while it might seem to be a rattle-brain plan it isn't as much so as might be supposed, provided the negroes can succeed in securing the permanent political control, for which they are now contending.

The negroizing of counties politically would mean the eventual negroizing of them in other respects, and then complete possession by the negroes, for the white man could not and would not live under the dominion of the negro.

MUZZLING THEM.

The fusion machine managers have become alarmed at the aggressive position taken by some of the negro speakers, and at the incendiary utterances of others, the effect of which is to put indifferent white people to thinking and to solidifying white voters for white rule, and hence they are clapping the muzzles on the colored orators when they can do it. They have even corralled Congressman White (black) who started out so defiantly and bellicosely, raised the black flag in Republican State convention, invited the race issue and gave his white associates to understand that they must stand with him on it or get out of the camp.

He started out in his campaign waving the black flag, but he waved it so hard that he made the bosses nervous, and somehow they have managed to call him down and put the muzzle on him. At Rocky Mount, where he spoke recently, the black flag didn't flutter, and his speech was the mildest of the mild compared with his previous defiant utterances. The Argonaut of last week thus refers to it:

"Instead of the incendiary speech we expected to hear, the Congressman 'cooed as mild as a sucking dove.' He only asked for a few little crumbs of pie falling from the white man's pie-counter. Said the Democrats had been kind to the negro, and would be so now if they had not been driven to outraging him for political purposes, and if they would only treat the negro fairly the day would come when the Democratic white man and the Democratic negro would drive the Radicals from North Carolina.

"He didn't seem to take very kindly to his Populist friends, in fact, the Congressman seemed very much inclined to sneer at his allies. He advised his constituents to vote with the Populists in all cases where it would benefit the Republican party, but at all other times to give them the 'marble heart.'"

This is the work of the machine managers — muzzling the black stumpers—but these champions of negro equality and domination can still have their say in the secret midnight meetings, which are now being held, where they can fire the hearts of their following without any interference by the white bosses.

AS A HOMESEEKER SEES IT.

The STAR has received several letters from a citizen of New Hampshire who contemplated visiting Eastern North Carolina, with a view to selecting a locality where he and perhaps some of his neighbors might make their homes. But he has concluded to wait the result of our coming election, in which he is very much interested, as will be seen by the following, the last letter received from him a few days ago:

"ATKINSON, N. H., Oct. 6.

"Mr. Editor:—As a resident of the North, I am watching with the deepest interest the political conflict in which the people of North Carolina are now engaged. It is a conflict between right and wrong; prosperity and adversity; advancement and retrogression. Which will they choose? is now the issue. And the country is watching. There is only one issue, and there is no neutral ground. They stand upon one side for protection of homes, of mothers, wives and sisters, and for the preservation of society, the prosperty of the State, and its growth by the incoming of respectable, intelligent men and women. Upon the other side, for misrule, negro supremacy, more fiendish outrages, and for drunken Judges, riding their districts delirious with drink or sitting upon the bench to uphold and defend assaults upon the purity of women, and a general assault upon morality, integrity, and all that elevates the State and nation.

"White men of North Carolina, be true to the memory of your fathers and to the principles that they fought and died for. Work as men never worked before, for you have as much at stake as men ever had; give your time and your efforts to the rescue of your State from misrule and debauchery, and if when the ballots are counted and victory for you is won, then you can say to the home-seeker, come, settle upon our broad acres and we will give you honest, decent government.

STEPPING TO THE FRONT.

Heretofore the black Republicans of the central and western counties have been pretty easily managed and kept in the rear while their white partners gobbled the plums. But the colored brother is getting tired of that and stimulated by the success of the negroes in eastern counties they are beginning to put in their claims to office in central and western counties. We have mentioned several counties, Wake, Stanly, Montgomery, Union, Rutherford and others, where the negroes have demanded recognition on the tickets nominated or secured it, and now comes Guilford, where the negroes heretofore have never demanded any office. But they are coming to the front now, as will be seen by the following from the Greensboro Record:

The colored man is coming. He is realizing that he has been doing all the voting, and now he wants some of the offices. He has heard that his city brethren are wading in and he, too, is at it.

Down in the Brown Summit section a negro has been nominated for magistrate, but they have since learned that they were entitled to three instead of one, and they say they will put out two more.

In South Rock Creek a convention or meeting of the committee was held the other day and the names of two negroes were proposed. The first said he could not read and that some one who could should be put up. Then some one nominated a negro named George Smith, who has served seven years in the penitentiary. George told the crowd that he did not think he would do, so the meeting adjourned without nominating any one.

POINTS POLITICAL.

At a White League meeting held on Monday night at the Falls, nearly every white man in the community joined. This is the more remarkable as this town only gave about twenty-five Democratic votes last election.—Rocky Mount Argonaut.

SECRETLY PULLED FOR PRITCHARD.

We have been informed that Mr. Frank Brown, member of the last Legislature from Jones county, told certain parties of prominence and intelligence that Dr. Cy Thompson secretly abetted the election of Pritchard to the United States Senate, to the end that Pritchard would do a like favor for Thompson to succeed Senator Marion Butler in 1890. We get this pretty straight and if it is denied we will furnish proofs. Yet Thompson pretended to be honest and opposed to the election of goldbug Pritchard. All the big Populists and Republican bosses in this State are "tarred with the same stick."—Kinston Free Press.

THE SKIES BRIGHTENING.

The political skies are brightening. Day by day evidences multiply that the people are becoming aroused to the present deplorable state of affairs and the further calamities that threaten. Populists and Republicans in different sections of the state are refusing to be used as slaves for the pie eaters, who are willing to see their race degraded in order that they may continue in office. It is becoming apparent that the issues of this campaign are more important than the success of any party, involving, as they do, the question whether we shall have good government or bad government, and whether or not the white race shall control the affairs of State and the counties.—Winston Sentinel.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Sanford Express: The Express regrets to learn of the death of Capt. A. M. Wicker, which occurred at his home near here Wednesday. Only a few weeks ago we were called upon to chronicle the death of this good man's wife. The deceased was, we believe, about 65 years of age.

He has sent some of the ore to Washington to be analyzed.

— Monroe Enquirer: Mr. R. J. Outler, who lives about two miles north of Monroe, had forty-five dollars, a lot of clothing and a pistol stolen from him on the night of September 29th by Joe Knight, a hired man. Knight had been working for Mr. Outler but a short time and was a stranger to him. The thief is of sallow complexion, weighs about 140 pounds and has black hair.

— Chatham Record: On last Thursday afternoon as Mr. Bright Roberts was returning from Goldston to his home at Carbonton, he was unexpectedly knocked from his horse by a rock being thrown by a negro, who then started to rob him but was run off by the approach of some white men. The negro was afterwards arrested and brought here to jail. Mr. Roberts was not seriously hurt. On Saturday morning (the 1st inst.,) Mr. John Boon, of this township, committed suicide. His mind had been deranged several weeks, and he had more than once tried to kill himself. All the shot and powder about his house had been sent away, and no one knows where or how he got the fatal load. To prevent his going out of the house at night his wife had locked the dorr and hid the key, bnt he found it and secretly went out shortly before day. The report of a gun aroused his wife, and going into the yard she found him lying on the ground with a large hole blown in his body. He was carried into the house and died about 8 o'clock that night. He had tied one end of a string to the trigger and the other end to a post and placed the muzzle of the gun against his body. Mr. Boon was about 67 years old and was a quiet and industrious citizen, respected by all who knew him.

CIGARETTEOLOGY.

Telling a Man's Character by a New Se of Signs.

The manner in which the smoker holds his cigarette in his hand while it is removed from his mouth tells much to the student of cigaretteology. If he holds it with all four fingers along the top, with the thumb underneath, he is either a born poet or musician. His organization is very fine and sensitive. Only the highest in all the arts will appeal to him. He is sadly lacking in courage and will never be married unless some young woman takes advantage of leap year and catches him off his guard. He is very fond of fruit and never eats meat. He is likely to be morose and melancholy.

Grasping the cigarette with the tips of all the fingers and thumb, with the lighted end pointing directly toward the palm of the hand, is a very bad sign. This smoker is a cold, calculating and designing man. He has an instinctive hatred of children and will be totally bald before he is 25 years old.

Holding the cigarette between the thumb and forefinger, with the remaining fingers closed on the palm of the hand, is infallible evidence that the smoker first began toying with the cigarette on the sly when he was very young and in constant fear of the deadly slipper. When held in this manner, the cigarette can be concealed more quickly and effectively than when held in any other way, so it may indicate many things. This smoker will be very dudish. If he drops his cigarette on the plazza floor and resumes smoking it without first knocking the dust off of it, he is not as tidy and methodical as he should be. He is also likely to be careless and heedless.

The fellow who holds his cigarette between his first and second fingers is a bicycle scorcher or will be if he lives long enough. He eats meat three times a day and has little regard for the rights of other people. He will have much trouble in life and will be put in jail several times. —Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Pay of Trained Nurses.

"The average sum paid to pupil nurses is $10 a month for the first year and $14 a month during the second year," writes Elisabeth Robinson Scovil on "The Life of a Trained Nurse," in The Ladies' Home Journal. "The remuneration varies in different institutions. In a few training schools the nurses are paid nothing. After graduation head nurses in hospital wards receive from $20 to $30 per month; superintendents from $500 to $1,200 a year. District nurses, who are employed by various churches, societies and sometimes by private benevolence to work among the sick poor receive about the same salary as a head nurse in a hospital, exclusive of board.

"Private nurses receive from $15 to $25 a week. They have to pay the rent of a room to use as a headquarters, and their earnings are more or less precarious. It is rare for a nurse to be employed all the time, and her work is so arduous that it would be impossible for her to stand the strain of continuous work."

An Odd Fish.

An amusing episode in a recent work, "Audubon and His Journals," published by John C. Nimmo, describes how an odd looking fellow one day handed the great naturalist a letter without any remark.

"I broke the seal," says Audubon, "and read as follows:

"'MY DEAR AUDUBON—I send you an odd fish, which you may prove to be undescribed, and hope you will do so in your next letter. Believe me always your friend, B.

"'With all the simplicity of a woodsman I asked the bearer where the odd fish was, when M. de T.—for, kind reader, the individual in my presence was none else than that renowned naturalist—smiled, rubbed his hands and with the greatest good humor said:

"'I am that odd fish, I presume, Mr. Audubon.'"—Household Words.

Student Manners In the Middle Ages.

Students were not always in residence for the rewards of learning alone. We find such notices as this at Prag: "Students are requested to keep quiet in lectures, not to groan, howl or hiss; not to cry out at strangers or newcomers; to carry no weapons and write no lampoons." Elsewhere we find, "Students are forbidden to break into houses in order to steal meat during Lent."—"University Life In the Middle Ages," by Professor W. T. Hewett, in Harper's Magazine.

MADAME'S SOUP.

A New and Wholly Unique Dish She Had For Her Guests.

"Poets are the only true prophets left to God." Thus hath the poet said. And now if I, who am not a poet, tell you the truth, will you believe me? I think not, but we shall see.

Listen!

If I fail to recount you a story in a few hundred words as full of tragic suggestiveness as "My Last Duchess," that marvelous life history told in 57 lines, then I am to blame and not the story.

One of the most prominent figures on the supreme bench of Louisiana in antebellum days was a certain Judge B——, whose locale was the parish of St. Landry. The judge was a man of old school elegance, and his wife was one of the most brilliant women of her day in the state. Their St. Landry home was noted for the elegance of its appointments no less than for the grandeur of its hospitality. Their entertainments were noted throughout the countryside. More than one white haired man prominent in latter day Louisiana politics can tell you that he proposed to his wife at a ball at Judge B——'s, and if you should care to know the wife can describe the elegant gowns all the ladies, and particularly Mrs. B——, wore on that occasion. These would make pleasant stories. I am to tell you one of another sort.

Upon a certain occasion Judge B—— gave a dinner to the bar of St. Landry. When the guests arrived, they found everything awaiting their reception. In the drawing room a bright wood fire glowed behind polished brasses; waxen tapers gleamed from silver candelabra to be multiplied and reflected again and again from surrounding mirrors. The judge greeted them with his usual magnificent courtesy of manner, while his wife, attired in a trailing gown of black velvet and rare old lace, with diamonds sparkling from her hair and her throat and her hands, seemed more than ever brilliant, beautiful and gracious. When presently a slave held the door open and ushered the guests into the dining hall, the elegance of the occasion seemed complete. Snowiest linen, frailest china, brightest crystal, most polished silver adorned the board. With that rare grace which was at all times her distinguishing charm, Mrs. B—— dished the soup from the steaming silver urn, her brilliant wit and clever repartee scintillating the while. As each guest was served his glance fell upon a plate of palest amber liquid with tiny, indistinguishable bits of something floating therein.

Finally the hostess lifted her spoon and with a graceful wave of her hand gave the signal to begin. There was a smile upon her parted lips as she said:

"Gentlemen, I have prepared a new soup for your delectation today. I trust it may please your palates. Should you like the recipe I can tell you it is made from the cowhide with which Judge B—— whipped me this morning."

How do you like my story, mesdames, messieurs?—Philadelphia Times.

Ireland sends out as emigrants to other lands from 40,000 to 50,000 of her sons and daughters annually, while Scotland parts with only from 16,000 to 18,000.

"CONTEMPTIBLE PIE HUNTERS."

This Is What Butler Called Those Who Favored Co-Operation in 1897.

Here is what Marion Butler said in his paper, the Caucasian, in February, 1897:

"The co-operation of the Populists and Republicans in this State has been a dismal and disastrous failure. Only the contemptible pie-hunters see any good in it."

If you do not believe Marion Butler's paper said this, ask him whether it did or not. He dare not deny it.

If "co-operation" had no "good in it" in 1897, is there "any good in it" in 1898, when Negro Domination is staring us in the face?

What Marion Butler said in the Caucasian in 1897, is exactly what every decent white man in North Carolina believes now.

Black Beasts Attempt to Outrage the Young Daughter of a Respectable Farmer.

HER FATHER SWEARS TO IT.

Attacked On the Public Highway in Brunswick County While Returning From Sunday School—Her Screams Saved Her From a Fate Worse Than Death.

Joseph Gore is an honest and respectable farmer of the county of Brunswick—poor in this world's goods, but esteemed by his neighbors. He has a wife and children, and there is a church and Sunday school near his home which are attended by his family. But he lives in a township where the negroes outnumber the whites more than three to one. This, coupled with the fact, no doubt, that Brunswick county is under Republican-Fusion rule, emboldened two beastly negroes to make an attempt to outrage a young girl on the public road as narrated in the following affidavit:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
County of Brunswick.

Personally appeared before me, Geo. H. Bellamy, a Justice of the Peace for Town Creek township, Brunswick county, Joseph Gore, who, being duly sworn, states: "Some days ago my daughter, aged 15 years, was returning from Sunday School, accompanied by her little brother, aged 12 years, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. When about a quarter of a mile from home, two negro boys, aged about 16 to 18 years, ran after my daughter, with their coats turned over their heads to conceal their identity, and attempted to take hold of her, and doubtless would have placed their unholy hands on her person; and had it not been for her screams would have doubtless accomplished their purpose. This was done in Town Creek township, in broad daylight, The villains have not yet been detected.

Signed, "JOSEPH GORE."

Signed and sworn to before me this 19th day of September, A. D., 1898.
GEO. H. BELLAMY, J. P.

White men of Brunswick county, can you stand that? Is there one left in the borders of your county who will not now vote against every candidate who consorts with negroes, and who is dependent on them for election? Has it come to this, that your daughters cannot attend church or Sunday school without having a body-guard to protect them from the lustful black brutes who roam through your county?

Rise in your might, white men of Brunswick. Assert your manhood. Go to the polls and help stamp out the last vestige of Republican-Populist-Negro Fusion.

A HORRID SLANDER.

The Most Infamous That Ever Appeared in Print in This State.

The Alarmed Politicians are Trying to Break the Force of it by Resorting to Various Dodges, But They are Too Thin.

The infamous assault on the white women of this State which appeared on the 18th of August in the Daily Record, the negro paper published in this city, has aroused a storm of indignation from one end of the State to the other. We have received so many requests for copies of the STAR containing this article that we herewith reproduce it in full, the accuracy of which is certified to by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and by a number of our well-known business men. The article is headed:

Mrs. Felton's Speech.

"A Mrs. Felton, from Georgia, makes a speech before the Agricultural Society at Tybee, Ga., in which she advocates lynching as an extreme measure. This woman makes a strong plea for womanhood, and if the alleged crimes or rape were half so frequent as is oftimes reported, her plea would be worthy of consideration.

"Mrs. Felton, like many other so-called Christians, loses sight of the basic principle of the religion of Christ in her plea for one class of people as against another. If a missionary spirit is essential for the uplifting of the poor white girls, why is it? The The morals of the poor white people are on a par with their colored neighbors of like conditions, and if any one doubts the statement let him visit among them. The whole lump needs to be leavened by those who profess so much religion and showing them that the preservation of virtue is an essential for the life of any people.

"Mrs. Felton begins well for she admits that education will better protect the girls on the farm from the assaulter. This we admit and it should not be confined to the white any more than to the colored girls. The papers are filled often with reports of rapes of white women, and the subsequent lynching of the alleged rapists. The editors pour forth volleys of aspersions against all negroes because of the few who may be guilty. If the papers and speakers of the other race would condemn the commission of crime because it is crime and not try to make it appear that the negroes were the only criminals, they would find their strongest allies in the intelligent negroes themselves, and together the whites and blacks would root the evil out of both races.

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burly' but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

"Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a colored woman.

You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the seed—the harvest will come in due time."

THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE CLERK.

An effort has been made by some of the politicians to fool the people by representing that this slander was a Democratic trick or was garbled, but the following affidavit from the Clerk of the Superior Court settles the question as to its accuracy:

NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I, John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record, a paper published in the city of Wilmington, of date Aug. 18, 1898.

"I further certify that said paper has been published in said city at least eight months prior to this date; that Alex. L. Manly, the editor, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has before this held the office of Deputy Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, by appointment from Charles W. Norwood, Republican Register of Deeds, of New Hanover county.

"I further certify that John N. Goins, business manager; L. D. Manly, foreman; Jno. T. Howe, general traveling agent; and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and are known as Republicans and the said Jno. T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. Witness my hand and seal this August 24th, 1898. JOHN D. TAYLOR,
Clerk Superior Court of New Hanover Co.

Who Manly Is.

As the Republican politicians in this county could not call this assault a Democratic trick, or say it was garbled, they tried to break the force of it by repudiating the paper as a party organ and characterizing the editor as a "simpleton" who represents no one but himself. The following affidavit from a number of business men of Wilmington testifies to the accuracy of the published slander, tells who Manly and his associates on the Record are and shows that Manly was not regarded as a simpleton, or a nobody before he startled the bosses by the publication of that awful article:

CITIZENS TESTIFY.

B. G. Worth, of the Worth Co.; R. W. Hicks, wholesale grocer; C. E. Borden, president of Navassa Guano Co.; W. L. DeRosset, commander of N. C. Division Confederate Veterans, and John C. Springer, of the firm of W. E. Springer & Co., each being duly sworn says that he has read the foregoing paper, and that the said is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record of the date August 18th, 1898; that said paper, the Daily Record, has been published in the city of Wilmington at least eight months prior to this date, and Alex. L. Manly, the editor thereof, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has held the position of Deputy Register of Deeds in New Hanover county under the Republicans.

Affiants further say that John N. Goins, business manager, L. D. Manly, foreman, John T. Howe, general travelling agent, and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and Republicans, and the said John T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897.

Desirable Tract of Land

Situated on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad.

Three miles south of Jacksonville, N. C., contains 813 acres, of which 200 are cleared and will grow corn, cotton, peanuts and rice. Strawberries and four varieties of blackberries grow on it spontaneously. Soil also excellent for tobacco and potatoes.

The remaining 613 acres are well timbered with pine, ash, oak, hickory and juniper. Eight to ten thousand juniper poles can be cut from the wooded portion now.

Plantation bounded by navigable water for one and one-half miles. On the banks of the stream are reeds upon which one hundred cattle can feed themselves through the winter. TITLE IS CLEAR.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 11.

TRIENNIAL COUNCIL EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Memorial From the Japanese and the Anglican Church in Honolulu—The Divorce Question.

WASHINGTON, October 10.—There was no abatement to-day in the public interest attending the triennial council of the Episcopal Church, and large crowds joined in the religious services at Epiphany church, which preceded the business of the day.

The expanding influence of the church was indicated by a memorial from the Japanese diocese asking the creation of a southern jurisdiction in that country, and from the Anglican Church in Honolulu heretofore fostered by the English Church, asking that in view of the annexation of Hawaii to the United States, the church of Hawaii be malgamated with that in this country, becoming a missionary jurisdiction. The propositions were referred to committees. The Southern Florida jurisdiction submitted a proposition that each missionary jurisdiction be represented in the council by one clerical and one lay delegate, with vote The proposition was referred.

The divorce question came up and was placed on the calendar for discussion, following the resolution on the Czar's peace conference. The resolution to close the doors when the divorce question came up led to a spirited debate. Several deputies criticised the move toward secrecy. The question of closing the doors finally went over until the divorce subject was considered.

This cleared the way for the main discussion of the day on the amendment of the constitution. This related mainly to the internal organization of the church and to the amendment of article 4 for the establishment of standing committees in each diocese. This article was agreed to after the adoption of an unimportant amendment.

Article 5, governing the formation of new dioceses led to considerable debate. It was explained by Dr. Dix, the chairman of the committee, that the article contravened no existing regulations but laid down broad principles governing the whole case.

Delegate Lightner, of Minnesota, moved to strike out that feature of the article which provides that no city shall form more than one diocese, except when the civil authority consolidates into one city portions of territory belonging to different dioceses, in which case each portion of said territory shall remain attached to the diocese to which it previously belonged until a change is made by the consent of the general convention. This amendment was finally adopted at the afternoon session.

Article 5 was then recommitted for further consideration by the committee.

Article 6 was adopted on a vote by dioceses.

Article 7 led to sharp discussion over the so-called provincial system. The committee report providing for uniting dioceses, Dr. John E. Egan, of the committee, presented a minority report, holding that the civil division of the country into States should be followed by the Church without the creation of strictly ecclesiastical "provinces."

The debate was carried on by Rev. Drs. Taylor, of Springfield; Fulton, of Pennsylvania, and Rev. G. H. Ward, of Florida, in support of the provincial system, and Rev. Dr. Huntington, of New York, and Rev. John Faude, of Minnesota, against it. The subject went over until to-morrow.

The House of Bishops devoted the entire afternoon session to discussing the various questions. Secretary Hart announced that considerable progress had been made but no decision had been reached.

Before adjourning for lunch the House of Delegates agreed to a resolution of the bishops repealing the canon establishing the Prayer-Book Distribution Society. This organization was formed for the purpose of accomplishing the free distribution of prayer-books, but its work has been completed and this branch of church labor is now attended to by the diocesean associations.

It was decided to create a new missionary district in Japan, to be known as the Kyoto district, which is conterminous with the Japanese diocese. The missionary will be selected by the bishops.

A resolution was agreed to providing for a general committee, to which shall be referred the resolutions presented by the Lambeth Conference.

PARIS PEACE COMMISSION.

Questions Relating to Cuba and Adjustment of Its Debt Believed to be Under Discussion.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PARIS, October 10.—The United States peace commission held two sessions to-day. They were devoted to acquiring and weighing information relative to all of the questions involved in the matters under the immediate consideration of the commissioners. It is believed that the questions now being discussed relate to Cuba and the adjustment of the debt of that island.

The Paris newspapers show evidence of anxiety in behalf of the Spanish cause.

The Gaulois this morning reviews the political situation and draws the conclusion that "between the alleged Republican purpose of expansion and the Democratic opposition thereto. President McKinley and the United States commission will be inspired after all, with the sentiments of generosity, which are the honor of victorious nations."

The key note of these expressions seem to have been sounded by a Spanish diplomat to an American here last week, the diplomat saying that the United States should be generous to Spain. That remark and the utterances of the French press give to each other added significance.

A dispatch from Madrid this morning says the cost of the Cuban and Philippine campaigns will exceed 3,000,000,000 pesetas.

M. Jules Cambon, the former French ambassador at Washington, arrived in Paris this morning. He will remain here for two months.

Capt. Albert Todd, of Sixth artillery, has been appointed mustering out officer in North Carolina.

YELLOW JACK'S STEADY MARCH.

The Situation More Serious at Jackson and Other Mississippi Points.

PEOPLE ADVISED TO LEAVE.

Four Cases Reported at Canton—The Town Badly Infected—Appeal for Aid for Suffering Towns—Marine Hospital Service at Work.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct 10.—The appeal made to President McKinley by the State Board of Health authorities at Jackson, Miss., for aid in the way of subsistence and medical help to meet the conditions arising from the yellow fever epidemic, has been referred to the Marine Hospital Service. Dr. Wyman, the surgeon general, and his assistants took the matter up promptly to-day but have not as yet determined what recommendation to make.

Surgeon Wyman feels the situation is not at all alarming and while the fever may spread slightly, it is only a question of time when with the appearance of cold weather it will be checked.

JACKSON, MISS., October 10.—The fever situation here is more serious to-day. With the appearance of the disease in North Jackson there is now no section of the city free from infection and new cases are multiplying rapidly. The official report for to-day is nine new cases. No deaths. Dr. J. H. Purnell, State health officer, is in charge here, and to-day issued the following proclamation:

"Yellow fever is appearing in all parts of the city. The spread is becoming general, and as it will be three or four weeks before cold weather can be reasonably expected, it is again urged that all parties who can possibly do so leave at once for Northern or other points that will receive refugees. Their remaining in Jackson several days longer will make it dangerous to leave."

Dr. Hunter, Secretary of the State Board of Health, officially reports as follows:

"Suspicious sickness having been reported at Canton an investigation asked Dr. Purnell was made and reports four cases of genuine yellow fever, the disease being traceable to Madison. He is satisfied the town is badly infected and advises depopulation, which has already taken place to a considerable extent. Harrison has 14 new cases to day. Fifty-five under treatment, five serious and two critically ill.

"Madison has 15 new cases; Oxford one new case; Edwards two cases and one death. Taylor's, one case; Orwood, six new cases and one death.

Appeal For Aid.

WASHINGTON, October 10.—Surgeon Wyman, of the Marine Hospital Service, and Acting Secretary of the Treasury Spalding had a conference to-day concerning the yellow situation in the South, with special reference to the appeal of the Governor of Mississippi for aid. It was decided that the government could not undertake to extend aid in the form of subsistence and nurses to individual families in which there was cases of fever. The detention camps, however, physicians, nurses and supplies will continue to be supplied by the government authorities as a measure to prevent the spread of the disease. Guards will be furnished for the same purpose.

Physicians of the Marine Hospital service are under instructions to do all in their power for people suffering from the fever. Surgeon General Wyman said to-night that the government would leave nothing undone that could be done properly to prevent the further spread of the disease or to aid those who were victims of it.

THE VOLUNTEER ARMY.

Jos. C. Breckenridge Heads the List of General Officers Who Are to be Mustered Out Shortly.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 10.—The order designating the general officers to be mustered out of service, dated October 7th, was published officially today, and at the head of the list was Major General Joseph C. Breckenridge, whose name was not in the first publication. Gen. Breckenridge will return to duty on November 30th as inspector general of the army.

On the day the order discharging the general officers was given to the public, another order was issued designating camps in the South, organizing the volunteer army into three corps and naming the three corps commanders. General Breckenridge was to command the First corps. It was stated at the department that this order had been revoked, and that Major General Jas. H. Wilson, who was appointed from Delaware at the beginning of the war, had been elected to command the First corps. It is also understood that there will be other [redacted] commands of the army corps stationed in the South. General Wheeler, who will command the Fourth corps, stated before leaving Washington that he expected to return to this city and resume his seat in the House soon after the beginning of the session. Gen. Graham who is to command the Second corps has retired as a brigadier general and the question has arisen as to whether he shall be continued longer in the volunteer service.

It is altogether likely that the designation of officers to command the Second and Fourth corps, stationed in Southern camps, is temporary, and that by the first of December, if not before, other officers will be named for permanent corps commanders. It is said that General John C. Bates and A. R. Chaffee, will command the Second and Fourth corps and Gen. Wilson will continue to command the First corps.

OIL STEAMER BURNED.

From Philadelphia Bound to Venice—Vessel and Cargo Valued at $350,000.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PHILADELPHIA, October 10.—The British oil steamer Weehawken, which cleared from this port on Saturday for Venice, with a cargo of 1,800,000 gallons of oil, was destroyed by fire on the Cherry Island flats, about twenty miles down the Delaware river. The cargo was valued at $50,000. The Weehawken was owned by the Weehawken Steamship Company (limited) and was chartered by the American Anglo Oil Company. She was 310 feet long, 40 feet beam, with 2,784 gross tonnage. The big tanker was valued at $300,000.

THE WAR COMMISSION CONTINUES INVESTIGATION

Three Witnesses Testify As to the Conditions at Camp Thomas and at Santiago.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 10.—The War Investigating Commission had three witnesses before it to-day. Captain Culver, of the Griggsby's Rough Riders; Dr. Hysell, chief surgeon of the Second division, located at Camp Thomas, and Major Gallagher, who was in charge of various commissary depots in the Santiago campaign.

Captain Culver had been stationed at Camp Thomas, Chickamauga, from May until he was mustered out, September 11th. The food, he said, generally was abundant and good. On one occasion the meat was tainted, but it was condemned and exchanged. He stated, however, that the tainted meat was not badly spoiled, and that he would have been glad enough to have had use of it in the civil war. Captain Culver mentioned an instance when the bacon received was wormy, and when the command first arrived there was a shortage of tentage, but these defects had been speedily remedied.

Capt. Culver stated that at one time twenty-two of his men were sick. He thought the proportion not excessive; no greater than during the first days of the civil war and until the men learned to depend upon the army ration and not to go outside for food. He thought the pies sold to the men were unwholesome, and also said that much stale fried chicken was sold to them. In conclusion, Capt. Culver said he had no complaint to make of the treatment, except in the location of his troops in the woods; he had protested against this location.

Dr. Hysell testified that he had been a surgeon in the civil war and since then said he had been in general practice. All the early cases of typhoid were treated in the regimental hospital and the patients were not isolated, until after the construction of the division hospital when typhoid and suspicious cases were isolated and the men were well attended by physicians and nurses, though at times one nurse would have charge of thirty men. The sinks were kept covered with earth but Dr. Hysell said that no special precaution was taken to disinfect vessels going to and from the sinks.

According to his opinion the men in his division had not as much water as they should have used, though the men did not complain. This was due to the fact that he had been suspicious of the water from Chickamauga river springs and had water hauled to the camp in barrels from outside. He had Doctor Martin, of the First brigade, examine the intake of the pipe line and this surgeon had reported that it was 15 feet below the mouth of Chickamauga creek, which received the drainage from the camp. Dr. Martin had also reported that the men were in the habit of bathing in the river above the intake. Dr. Hysell thought typhoid fever had been imported into the camp from the outside and that the increase had been due to the failure to properly cover the sinks and to the prevalence of flies.

The examination of Dr. Hysell was conducted by Dr. Conner of the commission and was very scorching from a medical standpoint.

At the afternoon session the commission examined Maj. Hugh J. Gallagher. He had served as depot commissary at Siboney, San Juan and Santiago and recently occupied this position at Montauk Pont; had been made chief commissary of Gen. Shafters corps. The rations were, he said, forwarded almost as rapidly as they were landed. He heard no complaint of lack of rations at the front. At first they were able to forward about 30,000 rations each day. From Siboney the depot was moved to El Poso, seven miles inland, and at this point there were never enough rations on hand for even a day ahead, and at this point it was impossible to fill all the requisitions. There was a shortage in coffee and sugar which continued for two or three days. This was due to the difficulty in landing supplies because of the high surf at Siboney.

Major Gallagher said there was one instance when the canned roast beef spoiled and it was destroyed. Some potatoes and onions and tomatoes were also thrown away at Santiago, for the same reason. Indeed, when it was discovered that any article of goods was defective it was destroyed. On one occasion it had been necessary to issue green coffee to men on the firing lines, but the issue had only been for a day and the emergency was unavoidable.

Col. Denby pressed for information as to the shortage of coffee and sugar, and Major Gallagher stated that there were probably two days when the men were without these articles. He said the storm was the immediate cause of this deficiency, but that if there had been a sufficiency of lighters this deficiency would not have occurred. The Major said there was not to his knowledge a shortage in any other article of food during the campaign.

"Suppose," asked Gen. McCook, "this shortage of rations had lasted for seven days instead of two, what would have been the result?" "We would probably have had to face back," replied Major Gallagher. "Men cannot fight on short rations."

Major Gallagher said that of the five civilian assistants he had, two were inefficient and indifferent to their duties. They were Capt. Lord, of New York, and Capt. Ryan, of Kansas City. Mr. Gallagher said the commissary supply at Montauk was abundant and good while he was at that point.

CONDITION OF COTTON.

An Average Decline of 4.4 Per Cent. Since September 1st.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 10.—The October report of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture shows the average condition of cotton on October 1st to have been 75.4, as compared with 79.8 for Sep tember 1; a decline of 4.4 per cent. The average condition on October 1, 1897, was 70, and the mean of the October averages for the last ten years is 73.9. The decline during September though by no means uniform, affected the entire crop producing region, being two points in South Carolina, Texas and Tennessee; 4 points in Alabama, 5 in Georgia and Arkansas, 6 in Mississippi, 7 in Virginia and Florida, 8 in North Carolina, 9 in Louisiana, 15 in Oklahoma and 22 in Indian Territory. The averages of the States are as follows: Virginia 84, North Carolina 76, South Carolina 79, Georgia 75, Florida 66, Alabama 76, Mississippi 72, Louisiana 67, Texas 73, Arkansas 84, Tennessee 93, Missouri 93, Oklahoma 75, Indian Territory 76.

GREAT BRITAIN'S WAR IN EGYPT.

Rejoicing in England at Salisbury's Determined Stand on Occupation of Fashoda.

FRANCE WILL BACK DOWN.

Newspapers at Paris Take a Calm View of the Situation—Expected the Government Will Find a Way Out of the Difficulty.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, October 10.—The comments in public and the newspapers show that the Marquis of Salisbury's determined stand on the question of the occupation of Fashoda has come as a most agreeable relief and as disposing of all the stories of a compromise. No whisper of dissent is heard anywhere. Both friends and opponents of the premier are rejoicing in the fact that in publishing the Blue Book of the Fashoda question he has burned his bridges behind him.

While it is recognized that the situation, by this publication, has become more difficult for France, there is almost entire absence of disposition anywhere to believe that France proposes to press her claims to the point of danger.

The Matin, which is directly inspired by the French foreign office, and which was foremost in urging extremist views, voices to-day the more pacific mood which is apparently obtaining in Paris, saying: "We shall probably not risk a war with Great Britain for nominal sovereignty over territories at an immense distance from our possessions on the Atlantic. They are as inaccessible from our coast annexations as the mountains in the moon. We can retain our honor without retaining Fashoda. Prudence should prevent us from loading ourselves with too much territory. We must be colonial, but in moderation."

The newspapers of Paris this evening take a calm view of the situation and plead for moderation. They express a sincere desire for a friendly settlement of the question when Major Marchand's reports arrive.

The prevailing view of political men is that the French cabinet will find a way out of the difficulty in the report asked from Marchand, and who, it is expected in response to a hint from the French foreign office, will declare that his position at Fashoda is untenable. The publication of such a report, it is held, would fully justify the French government in recalling him.

Opinion in London.

LONDON, October 10.—The morning papers all renew their comments upon the Fashoda situation, but on neither side of the channel is any idea given expression that the affair is likely to lead to war.

The worst that can happen is the resignation of M. Delcasse, the French foreign minister, or perhaps the whole ministry; but, were it not for the delicate international situation in France arising out of the Dreyfus affair and the strike, the Fashoda incident would involve no danger whatever.

The general attitude of responsible journals in Paris is to wait for the arrival of the text of the Blue book dispatches before committing themselves to a decided opinion.

SPANISH SOLDIERS.

Cuba Will be Evacuated by End of November and Porto Rico Next Week.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MADRID, October 10.—It is said here that the evacuation of Porto Rico will be completed next week and that the evacuation of Cuba will be accomplished by the end of November. The government is employing twenty-one vessels in the repatriation of the troops. The soldiers have received their pay for June, and on landing in Spain they will receive two months pay and be given civilian clothing and mustered out of the service.

MINNESOTA INDIAN TROUBLE.

Federal and State Authorities Working in Harmony—Whites Still Uneasy and Call for Protection.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct 10.—The Federal and State authorities are now working in harmony toward the quelling of the Indian revolt. Gen. Bacon offered to come down from Walker this evening to confer with Gov. Clough but the latter advised conference by wire.

He received the following message from Gen. Bacon:

"Situation bad. Conference yesterday resulted in nothing. None of the Indian chiefs were there. The lumber men are all coming into Walker. Troops needed at Cass Lake."

Nevertheless the Governor believes that the situation is well in hand and that the recalcitrants are practically surrounded.

From Park River the Governor has received a personal statement signed by Chief Ned Gay Guy Enanoway Rush, as follows:

"We, the Chippewa Indians at Pine Point, beg to state to the public that we are perfectly friendly to the whites and have no ill-feeling or are in any way hostile. We have decided at the council not to take any part whatever in the Leach Lake trouble."

A company of fifty volunteers has been offered to the governor from Litchfield.

MINNEAPOLIS, October 10.—A special to the Journal from Cass Lake, says that armed bucks are undoubtedly proceeding south. Calls were received from Bermija for troops but none were sent, as this was considered the more crucial point. There is considerable apprehension and an undoubted necessity for troops to allay panic in the smaller towns along this line.

Indian Council Held.

WALKER, MINN., October 10.—The Indian council was held at the agency this afternoon and was well attended by Flat Mouth and representative delegations. Gen. Bacon and Inspector Tinker told the Bear Islanders that if they would give up the men for whom warrants have been issued and come in themselves they could go home. If they resisted the government would not rest until the criminals had been captured. This message will reach the hostiles by runners to-night. Gen. Bacon's terms were received by the chiefs with signs of evident pleasure, and they all signified their approval of them. It is believed the Pillagers will accept them.

ST. PAUL, MINN., October 10.—Two companies of militia started from Duluth this afternoon for Bermija, that town having called for protection.

Trouble at Portage Lake.

MINNEAPOLIS, October 10.—The following telegram has just been received from Superintendent Blanchard of the Northern Pacific at Barker, Minn:

"Woman just in at McGregor from Portage Lake, four miles west, reports two dozen Indians in war paint drove her from her home. She thinks her husband and father are killed. This is the first and only trouble reported along our line. Will you notify proper State authorities. I will take a deputy and a dozen men with guns from Charleston."
